DESCRIPTIVE PRICE LIST OF PUBLICATIONS OF

THE AMERICAN ARCHITECT

239 West 39th Street NEW YORK CITY

THE AMERICAN ARCHITECT

The pioneer architectural journal of America, and the only architectural weekly in this country. Being issued weekly, it is able to impart the invaluable quality of timeliness to its illustrations and letter press. A minimum of 520 pages of illustrations, 728 pages of text and 10,000 building notes are published annually. Subscription price, $10.00.

THE GEORGIAN PERIOD

An Encyclopedia of American Colonial Architecture

Edited by Wm. Rotch Ware.

"The most interesting of all American publications in the field of architecture."—Review of Reviews.

"Nothing that care can do has been spared to make the drawings useful and thoroughly practical for the use of the architect."—The Building News, London, England.

The complete edition of the Georgian Period is published, 12 parts in folio. Price, $60.00. 351 plates; 525 text illustrations.

A circular containing reduced sample pages will be sent on request.

STUDENTS' EDITION OF THE GEORGIAN PERIOD

Consists of the leading article on Colonial Architecture and 100 of the most useful plates from the complete edition chiefly made up of the measured drawings. These are contained in one large portfolio, and the price is $15.00.

SEATS OF THE COLONISTS

Edited by William Rotch Ware.

Folio, 10 x 14 inches. Measured drawings and photographs of examples of Colonial furniture. Accompanied with these is a 16 page text "Short Glossary of Terms," by William Bigelow, with a 2 page introduction by Horace Dunham, and a 4 page article on "Chippendale," by R. D. Benn. 30 pages of illustrations. Price, $5.00.

DETACHED DWELLINGS

Part II.

A collection of 111 illustrations, size 9 x 12, illustrating modern American homes, costing from $5000 to $75,000, and designed by 40 of the leading architects in America, who have attained the greatest success in that class of work. Exterior views in half-tones and floor plans are given in connection with each house. The accompanying text is written by architects who are particularly well fitted to speak on the subject.

PORTFOLIO OF CHURCHES

This collection is made up of 50 illustrations showing interior and exterior views, with photographic reproductions in color and accompanied with floor-plans. Price, $2.50.

RENAISSANCE DOORWAYS ITALIAN

Red cloth, gilt top, 104 plates, each 10 x 14 inches. Price, in portfolio, $5.00.

IRON DOOR AND WINDOW GRILLES

Red cloth, gilt top, 104 plates, each 10 x 14 inches. Price, bound in cloth, $5.00.

ECCLESIASTICAL DOMES

We present this to the attention of practicing architects who specialize in Church Designing, as exemplifying in full the historical domes of the old country. 80 plates, bound in red cloth. Price, $5.00.

MODERN SCHOOL HOUSES

A collection of 150 pages of illustrations of recently constructed school houses supplemented by a series of authoritative articles by Prof. A. D. Hamlin, C. B. J. Snyder, and others. Bound in substantial cloth binding, $7.50 per copy.

GARAGES COUNTRY AND SUBURBAN

100 illustrations (perspectives, floor-plans, sections and details) of garages of recent construction. With authoritative articles on the design, plan and equipment. Price, bound in Cloth, $4.00.

THE HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION

By JULIAN LAUGHLIN

IS a book of facts that often seem stranger than fiction, because of its originality in matter and in treatment. The history of ideas is so far reaching in its consequence that if correctly or even approximately set out, no other work can compare with this in importance. The book is the result of a vast research; along new and original lines; and is illustrated with over 500 pictures.

Part 1 gives a history of life, tracing from the atom, through inorganic molecules, and organic development, up to vegetable and animal life, and to man. Darwin made no attempt to connect man and the monkey historically. This book fixes the Euphrates Valley as the spot where, by use of implements, four tribes of monkeys developed into four primitive races of men. One by invention, three by imitation. After the invention of the bow, this first, prehistoric, civilization was destroyed by the brown, and the other races dispersed. The migrations of the races are shown by colored maps. A second and greater civilization sprang up, afterwards, among a white people, living in the Nile Valley, and was destroyed by the brown Hyksos. The third civilization begun in modern Germany; and with the rise of Japan will soon be facing the same brown peril. It classifies man into four, antagonistic races, with four languages, and four colors: white 350 million, brown and brown mixed 825, yellow 300, and pure black 25 millions. The white race is the inventive race. The brown race is the great, conquering race—having no warlike equal. It controls the entire yellow race; has reduced the black to a remnant; and had nearly exterminated the white when gunpowder was invented. For 400 years the white man with a gun has whipped the brown man with bow and arrow. The modern superiority of the whites is not due to religion, or valor, or superior intelligence, even; but to modern inventions. The missionary and the trader are now betraying the warlike secrets of the white man to his most deadly enemies. Instead of confining the lower races to the bow and arrow, the white nations are courting destruction by educating them.

Part 2 gives a history of ideas. It finds ancient civilization the result of certain useful inventions and discoveries—such as fire, writing, wheel, loom, plow, sail, bronze, iron, etc.—just as our modern civilization is due to printing, gunpowder, steam-engine, electrical devices, etc. These ancient inventions were all patiently traced back to a white people who lived in Egypt before the Hyksos invasion, 2100 B.C. The Kemian, Osiris begun this second civilization about 5000 B.C. on the Island of Phylæ, in Egypt, by discovering the use of fire. This the greatest of all discoveries raised, first his own, then neighboring people from the Primitive to the Savage state. The word God (Teutonic Got) means champion; in the Latin, Divus, and the Sanscrit, Devata, a shining one, is used; in the Semitic, the Gods were the strong ones. They were simply the ancient inventors, who learned to control the forces of nature and gave to man the beneficial use of power. Our entire civilization is dependent on the use of fire, which is not natural but artificial. In every religious system Osiris was regarded as the Supreme God, because his idea was considered the supreme idea. He was the Latin, Jupiter (Heavenly Father); Greek, Zeus, Aryan, Dyaus; Teutonic, Woden, whose title was Got or God. He is the Chinese, Tien (The Heavenly Father); Turkish, Alah and Jewish, Eloah. The Kemian, On invented the gig; and was the first fisherman. He was the Semitic, Dagon (dag—a fish); Greek, Posidon; and Latin, Neptune, God of the Sea. Anubis invented the first musical instrument, the Lyre, and his title, Musæus, means musician in many languages. He invented bronze, and was the first Smith (Hebrew Cain). Kem, as domesticator of the goat was called Pan; of the grape, Bacchus; of the honey-bee Chris Crinkle and Santa Claus. Hather invented the loom, plow, mill, trumpet, tamborine and many other things. Most of the goddesses are repetitions of her various titles. Horus discovered iron, and was the great iron-Smith (Hebrew-Tubal-Cain; Latin, Vulcan). Thoth invented picture-writing and the sun-dial, which, as the time-god Ra, became one of the Universal Gods (Semitic, El; Hindoo, Brahma; Greek, Chronos; Latin, Saturn; Norse, Alfadur, and English, Old Father Time.) Isis (Juno) invented the sail. Khnum (Hercules) domesticated the horse. While exploring the earth he came to America (Atlantis) about 2500 B.C., and left a colony of white Kemians in Yucatan, whose descendants spread from Chili to Lake Superior, but were afterwards exterminated by the American Indian. All the "Universal Gods," both ancient and modern, can be reduced to eleven. These ideas were exported from Egypt. They spread along the old trade-routes, moving at the rate of about two miles to the year, and are moving now.

The myths and miracles, fables and philosophies are of parasitic origin. They grew out of persistent abuses of the taxing-power, and were invented to mislead and deceive the religious contributor and legal taxpayer. They were often expressed in poetry and sung by ancient Bards. These ancient ideas, both good and bad, still control the world, though the people who originated them are almost entirely forgotten.

ROMEYN B. HOUGH, AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER OF THE FOLLOWING:

A Volume of "AMERICAN WOODS" Displayed

Note that the specimens are transverse, radial and tangential sections, and that the pages in which they are mounted are separable, to facilitate examination.

AMERICAN WOODS A publication on the trees of North America, north of the Mexican boundary, illustrated by actual specimens of their woods showing three distinct views of the grain of each. The specimens are sufficiently thin to allow the transmission of light, whereby characteristic structures, tints, etc., are revealed in a most satisfactory manner. An accompanying text gives full information as to botanical characters, distribution, physical and medicinal properties, uses, etc., of each species. The work is issued in parts, each covering twenty-five species, and handsomely bound. Price, in cloth binding, $5 per part; in half morocco, $7.50.

HANDBOOK OF THE TREES OF THE NORTHERN STATES AND CANADA Photo-descriptive of the leaves, fruits, winter twigs and typical barks of each species and magnified wood structures of the principal species, with maps indicating distributions and full text. One unfamiliar with botany can identify the trees by comparison with its illustrations. Its value is in its completeness. The work represents several years of field-work with camera, study and experiment, which nothing but the author's love of the subject and peculiar vocation would enable him to prosecute with such care, and publish results in such a neat volume at the price at which it is offered. Price in buckram binding, $6; in half morocco, $8.

LEAF KEY TO THE TREES A compact pocket guide, based mainly upon leaves, 4½ x 6 in. in size of page and with photographic picture in colors of an attractive isolated White Elm tree, in summer and in winter, as frontispiece. Price 75 cents, postpaid

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA

A biographical dictionary of notable living men and women of the U. S. Edited by Albert Nelson Marquis. Revised and reissued biennially. Edition for 1910-11 (Vol. VI), published in May, 1910, 2500 pages, full cloth. The edition for 1912-13 will be issued early in 1912. Price, $5.00 net.

WHO'S WHO IN NEW ENGLAND

A Biographical Dictionary of the Leading Living Men and Women of the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut. Contains life-sketches of 9552 leading New Englanders. Modeled on the plan of "Who's Who in America," but it by no means attempts to supplant or supersede that work. It aims, rather, to serve as a useful supplement and companion to the national volume, containing, as it does, 7070 personal sketches which are not in the latter. Issued in April, 1909. Full cloth; 1150 pages. Price, $5.00 net.

THE FADING OF THE MAYFLOWER

A poem of the present time. By Theodore Tilton. Decorative border design of the Trailing Arbutus (from which the book takes its theme), by Ralph Fletcher Seymour. Drawings by W. J. Enright. A beautiful half-tone portrait of the Author. India tint paper, uncut edges, gilt top. Beautifully printed and bound. Full cloth. Price, $1.50.

BREHM'S LIFE OF ANIMALS

DISEASES OF THE DOG AND THEIR TREATMENT

By Dr. Georg Muller, Professor, Director of the Clinic for Small Animals at the Veterinary High School at Dresden, and Alexander Glass, A.M., V.S. (McGill), for twenty-seven years (1885-1911) Lecturer on Canine Pathology in the University of Pennsylvania.

This work is the only serious one on the subject. The authors, equipped by long years of clinical practice and experience in Europe and America, have produced what has become the recognized work on the subject. The leading colleges in every English-speaking country have instantly recognized its value as a text-book and adopted it, and it has received the approval of the leading veterinarians and veterinarian journals. Every detail in the diseases of the dog is carefully considered, and the whole so admirably arranged that the student and layman can readily find and study any subject in a clear, condensed form. This new edition has been entirely rewritten and much new material added, but in particular the chapters on Rabies and Tuberculosis contain the results of the investigations in these subjects during the past ten years.

New illustrations and plates, in colors, increase the value of the work. Descriptive circulars sent on receipt of request. Large octavo, 494 pages, art canvas, $5.00.

Strongly recommended by the Berlitz School of Languages.

MERCANTILE SPELLER

Containing the correct way of spelling words and their tenses, plurals, etc.

This, the only complete Thesaurus of the Anglo-Saxon tongue, forms a perfect companion for the busy correspondent. Many know perfectly what they wish to say, and how to say it, who are yet dubious on the correct orthography of the words they use, particularly in reference to the plurals, tenses, etc.; to these persons the present work is invaluable. No clerk is equipped for a position without one of them, and it is indispensable to all in the professions.

It contains more words in actual use than any dictionary, arranged in the most convenient form. There is an appendix containing unusual words with different meanings and spellings, so that the proper one can instantly be selected. The list is very full, in the expressions of the arts and sciences, comprising many thousand technical, industrial and scientific terms which have lately enriched our vocabulary.

Descriptive circulars sent on receipt of request. Octavo, 470 pp., bound in black cloth, red edges, $2.50

CRUISES MAINLY IN THE BAY OF THE CHESAPEAKE

By Robert Barrie and George Barrie, Jr.

"Readers will remember those interesting logs, not only for their value as records of cruises, but also for the many items of gossip and history concerning the wonderful coastline passed. They give delightful thumbnail sketches of those American people one seldom hears about, but which constitute a very strong factor in the country and its social life."—The Yachting Monthly, London.

"Written by two men who clearly know how to get the most of marine life along shore. They set forth their adventures in an easy unpretentious style that brings readers close to the scenes described."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Octavo, 276 pp., with 96 Illustrations and Chart, $2.

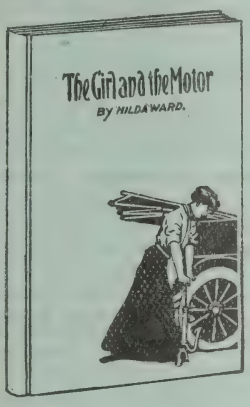
The Girl and The Motor

By Hilda Ward.



There is the smell of the sea breezes of Long Island and while no plot is involved, there are constantly recurring incidents of humor and an occasional situation of pathos.

The book will interest every one who likes to read about a real, live girl who takes care of her own 14 foot boat and 20 H. P. car and resents the interference of those who think they know more than she —even though they belong to the masculine gender.

Handsomely illustrated and bound. Graces equally the parlor table or the tool box of motor boat or automobile. The lessons to be applied are so gently taught and so unconsciously absorbed that even those who do not love the smell of gasoline will enjoy reading the story. An attractive gift book. 120 pp. 12mo. cloth, illustrated, price postpaid.. .....$1.00

J. C. F. Grumbine's Books

Clairvoyance (Fourth Edition)

Since the publication of Emanuel Swedenborg's books, no more helpful, valuable work has appeared than the one entitled Clairvoyance: Its Nature and Law of Unfoldment, by J. C. F. Grumbine. It is a system of inspired teachings concerning Divinity, especially Clairvoyance, and how to unfold the clairvoyant vision, to pierce the veil of sense, see and converse with spirits, enter at will into the spiritual world, and become a seer and an adapt in this branch of mystical science. Published in blue and green cloth. Price $1.50.

Easy Lessons in Occult Sciences

is a neat book containing much very helpful knowledge on how to proceed to unfold the independent psychical powers without going into a trance or becoming obsessed. It is a textbook for beginners who contemplate making the most of themselves, both in a human and divine sense. Price 50c.

Psychometry

is a simple but profound exposition of this most fascinating subject, put before the reader in language which is both clear and dignified, and which opens the eyes to the inner spheres of the soul and the law for the expression of this soul-power called sensitiveness or soul-measurement. Price 50c.

Auras and Colors

is a very readable book, and inasmuch as the book is now in its eighth thousand, proves its value as an original contribution on this very occult subject. How to see the aura, how to know the significance of the colors one vibrates, how to place them and the spirit who manifests them, how to catalogue all colors correctly, what colors to wear, is here briefly and concisely explained. This is a busy man's book. Price 50c.

The Great Secret, and Other Occult Tales

is a series of short stories on Spiritualism, ghost stories founded on facts, and stranger than fiction. The Great Secret tells prospective man or woman when to marry, how to produce children who will be angels rather than demons, by a law which science will sooner or later recognize. Price 50c.

Proofs of Spirit Identity

A series of letters from Spirit Elizabeth Barrett Browning to J. C. F. Grumbine while a clergyman in the Unitarian church. Price 50c.

The Spirit World

Where and What It Is. A full description of this supernormal world to which our beloved and departed spirit friends go after death, and how they live and seek to communicate with us. Price, paper, 50c.

Universal Religion

and Its Relation to Spiritism and Spiritualism. Price 50c.

Clairaudience

Teaches how to unfold and express the supernormal power of clairaudient (Spiritual) hearing. Cloth, $1; paper, 50c.

Telepathy

The law of thought transference. Price 50c.

Three "All Star" Books

1. "UNCLE WALT"

By WALT MASON. 192 pages. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth. $1.25 Net.

Not since this new Century crept out of its hut has a face so illumined the horizon of the every-day gloom and grunting as has that of the genial Walt Mason—one of the greatest homeopathic gloom chasers of all time.

"Uncle Walt," is being popularized by a daily reading of his Prose-Poems by ten million people in the press of the country. "Uncle Walt" is now in its third edition.

"The most popular of current American Poets."—Collier's Weekly.

"The Poet Laureate of the American Democracy."—WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE.

2. WALT MASON'S BUSINESS "PROSE POEMS."

By WALT MASON. 120 pages. 12mo. Cloth. $1.00 Net.

This Book is a collection of the most famous Prose-Poems ever written by this popular Prose Poet, on topics wholly pertaining to Business and Business Ethics, in Walt Mason's humorous, inimitable style. The Book is a corker and sells on sight.

3. "CHIT-CHAT."

By RUTH CAMERON. 160 pages. 12 mo. Cloth. $1 00 Net.

Among the women writers of the country appealing to the mass of newspaper readers, none is more popular or has a larger following than RUTH CAMERON. Her daily "Chit-Chats" in the press of America are read by millions, who want her best articles preserved in book form.

HISTORY OF THE 21st U. S. INFANTRY, from 1812 to 1863, by CAPTAIN CELWYN E. HAMPTON, U. S. A., Retired. Illustrated. 221 pages. Cloth. Price, $2.39 net, postpaid.

THE LAW AND CUSTOMS OF RIOT DUTY, by COLONEL B. L. BARGAR, is a systematized arrangement of the law and customs relative to active service of the military in the aid of civil authorities under the various degrees of martial law in state service and under martial law in federal service. Bound Law Style, 323 pages. Price, $3.00, postpaid.

A FALLING SPARK, a volume of poems "written slowly, from time to time, as the music of each sang the burden of its thought" into the author's mind. 139 pages. Art Bound. Price, $1.56 net, postpaid.

IN OUR COUNTRY'S SERVICE, by MAJOR M. J. PHILLIPS, is an intensely interesting account of the adventures of two young soldiers just prior to our next Great War. The climaxes are great, and the interest holds you to the last. Price, $1.00, postpaid.

THE DIARY OF AN ENLISTED MAN, by CAPT. H. M. BUSH. This is not a text book. It is a story, but a story from which anyone contemplating military service will absorb hundreds of valuable and helpful points. It is interesting, entertaining and exciting. Price, cloth, 50 cents; paper, 25 cents, postpaid.

MAKING A SOLDIER, by LIEUT.-COL. A. C. SHARPE, U. S. A. A book intended for all patriotic citizens who are proud to live under the protection of the United States flag, and who believe in backing it up with an adequate system of national defense. Cloth with gold lettering. Price, 50 cents, postpaid.

The Song of the Wahbeek

A POEM

By HENRY PELHAM HOLMES BROMWELL

An Indian tradition of the Sun-worshippers who occupied the country before the coming of the red man is made the basis of this work. With it are interwoven many of the legends of the Indian, and it is sure to interest several classes of bookbuyers. The love story of Klo-lo-war and Lo-wi-el is the romance or tragedy of the poem, and is told in the imagery of the Indian.

STELLA'S ROOMERS

The astonishing story of a New York Rooming House, by STELLA CARR, an indigent German-American Landlady.

"It impresses one as being based on fact," says a New York critic, "but so amusing and drolly that it is something of a divine discovery."

This landlady's amazing experiences with her roomers are indeed both astonishing and highly amusing, and her wealth of good-natured wit and supreme humor cannot fail to impress all those who still love to read and laugh. Cloth, 12mo, $1.25 net.

THE DOMINANT SEX

Decidedly the most important play written on the woman question of to-day—aside from its intense interest as a story filled with scenes and incidents of great reality and dramatic thrills. Annie Nathan Meyer is one of the few really significant figures in a sane uplift of womanhood, and "The Dominant Sex" is a brilliant summing up of true wisdom and of real things in life. POSTAGE STAMPS AND THEIR COLLECTION
By WARREN H. COLSON

(a recognized authority on this subject) is the story of the world famous collection of Dr. W. C. Bowers, of Bridgeport, Conn., one of America's greatest collectors.

This interesting narrative is preceded by three chapters, historic, instructive and entertaining. These chapters lead the reader easily to the delights of collecting, show him the various methods employed, and introduce him to the great collectors who are the foremost leaders to-day in this delightful hobby.

The book is published in a veritable edition de luxe form and is limited to five hundred copies. It is finely printed on exquisite paper, with wide margins, lavishly illustrated with seventeen full-page plates, beautifully executed in sepia and daintily inserted throughout the text, and is surely a production to delight the booklover as well as the enthusiastic stamp collector. Price $3.65, post free.

HAMPTON, VA.

OPTIC VIEWS AND IMPRESSIONS of the National Soldiers' Home, Hampton. By E. L. COBB, a Veteran of the Civil War. 8vo, cloth, profusely illustrated. Price, $2.00, postage 15 c. prepaid.

"It has sixty-four full page illustrations of views of the grounds and Hampton Roads, also exterior and interior views of the buildings, and contains some thirty chapters, describing every department of the Home, and relating its early history. . . . Mr. Cobb's book should be read by the public and especially by those having relatives or friends in the Northern Homes, for it removes the false impression which has largely prevailed that the Homes are almshouses. It will be found interesting reading by all who would know how the Government is caring for the veterans."—Camden Courier.

Observations of an Illinois Boy in Battle, Camp and Prisons

By HENRY H. EBY, Author and Publisher, Mendota, Ill.
RETAIL, $1 00

Mr. Eby begins his narrative with the outbreak of the Civil War. Actual incidents of that gigantic struggle, stories of camp and battle, experiences of prison life, escape and recapture, are most vividly and interestingly told. The depictions are exceedingly impressive and accurate, having been taken from the writer's actual experience in the service from April, 1861, to nearly 1865. In addition to most clearly, distinctly and impressively portraying the experiences of soldier life. Sound and patriotic appeal is also made to youthful boys and girls incentive of character building, and an address by the Author to his old comrades reviewing the subsequent effects of the efforts of the "Boys in Blue," and the book is well constructed in good cloth binding and contains forty-two illustrations and 284 pages. It is written in a condensed form.

Spices and How to Know Them stands alone as the only book published on this subject.

It is a romantic but true story, being both interesting and instructive.

It is the best fixture a merchant can put in his store, as it teaches him what spices to buy and how to sell them to bring him trade.

It secures the consumer against goods which are spice in name only and assures him of obtaining his money's worth.

For domestic science work it is indispensable, and in fact a copy should be in every public library and household of all English speaking people.

179 pages, 14 colored plates, 49 microscopic slides and 40 authentic pictures of countries where the spices grow. Full cloth binding, stamped in gold leaf. Price, $3.50.

THE RENDING OF VIRGINIA

A HISTORY

By GRANVILLE DAVISSON HALL

Much of this work is history from first hands, written by one who was reporter in the Conventions which reorganized the Virginia government; whose reports are declared by State Historian Lewis the sole record of that episode.

This book was consulted as an authority in the Virginia Debt suit recently decided by the U. S. Supreme Court, and privately pronounced by counsel on both sides as "accurate and valuable."

Cloth, illus., 620 p., $2; carriage 20c.

The Universalist Church and Freemasonry

By THE REV. H. L. F. GILLESPIE, B.D.

A thoroughly well written and printed pamphlet of 76 pages. It is nicely illustrated and treats the essential points of its theme very clearly; while dealing with fundamental principles it does so in plain words and is chiefly valuable as a contribution of facts relating to the real history of Universalism, here published for the first time and quite needful to an understanding of modern Liberalism. It gives a list of valuable references for further study and is the only work upon the subject from the standpoint of Liberal Christianity.

"A splendid booklet. . . . so far as it relates to Freemasonry in religious circles should put a lot of people thinking."—The Gospel Messenger.

THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN

By B. F. RILEY, D.D., LL.D.

A thorough and exhaustive treatment of the race question in the South, being a presentation of actual conditions with respect to the Negro economically and sociologically. No question however knotty is shunned, but is met in a frank, judicial spirit, and the truth flatly told. The Author, though a descendant of a slave-holding ancestry, takes a broad, humanitarian view of the Negro, and makes a plea for him never before made. Because of its frankness and sincerity in defense of the Negro, the book has aroused unusual interest throughout this country, and in other parts of the world.

Handsomely bound in muslin, printed in bold, clear type, 250 pages. Sent postpaid for $1.35.

Address DR. B. F. RILEY, Birmingham, Alabama.

The Analysis of Beauty

By WILLIAM HOGARTH

A REPRINT, including the plates formerly in portfolio, arranged in convenient form. Few books of this character, first issued 150 years ago, contain enough of interest and instruction for the modern reader and art student to warrant a reprint. Hogarth's rare book is an exception. It is still an authority frequently referred to and quoted by teachers and writers on art, and is the basis of many systems of instruction. This reprint has been highly commended for its convenient form and general make up.

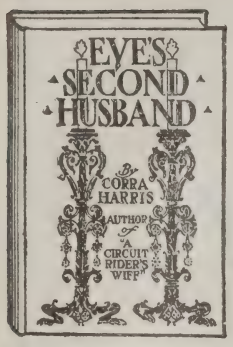
Eve's Second Husband

By CORRA HARRIS

Author of A Circuit Rider's Wife



THE story of a woman's heart—a wom good and clever, pure and practical—t intimate, absorbing story of an American W told by herself. It is an extraordinary re lation of the feminine soul, an incisive study marriage.

Cloth, Illustrated, . . . $1.50

A Circuit Rider's Wife

By CORRA HARRIS

Author of Eve's Second Husband

IN this book the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher tells the st of his life and hers for thirty years on a southern circuit among crude people intensely in earnest about the salvation of their souls. last her husband breaks down. After his death the wife visits a rich sister New York, but the glitter and shallowness of fashionable city life do not app to her. She says: "Up here the best, the wisest people do not know what truth of God is. They think they can find it in science. They are not try to reconcile God to man, but man to God. I do not wonder that so many m and women go wrong in New York."

A book unlike any other. Sensational, but sane.

PONY RIDER BOYS

SERIES

By FRANK GEE PATCHIN

THESE books fairly breathe the spirit of young American manhood. While wholesome and moral in tone, they are full of the joy of living that comes to those who spend their days in the open air. The stories are replete with action and stirring incidents, and are sure to hold the interest of the reader from cover to cover.

Handsomely printed in large type on fine paper. Splendidly bound in cloth with decorated covers.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS IN THE ROCKIES; Or, The Secret of the Lost Claim.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS IN TEXAS; Or, The Veiled Riddle of the Plains.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS IN MONTANA; Or, The Mystery of the Old Custer Trail.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS IN THE OZARKS; Or, The Secret of Ruby Mountain.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS ON THE ALKALI; Or, FINDING a Key to the Desert Maze.

THE PONY RIDER BOYS IN NEW MEXICO; Or, The End of the Silver Trail.

These tales may be aptly described as those of a new Cooper. As the earlier novelist depicted the first days of the advancing frontier, so does Mr. Patchin deal charmingly and realistically with what is left of the strenuous outdoor West of the twentieth century. In every sense they belong to the best class of books for boys.

The High School Boys

SERIES

By H. IRVING HANCOCK

IN this series of bright, crisp books a new note has been struck. Heretofore the market for juvenile books has been well supplied with stories of boarding school life and of young men at college. A series of stories based on the actual doings of high school boys comes nearer to the heart of the average American boy.

This Series of books, teeming with incidents in athletics and school boy fun, comes from the pen of Mr. Irving Hancock, author of the now famous Motor Boat Club Series.

The scenes are laid in the town of Gridley, but the background is a composite view of half a dozen first-class high schools in various parts of the country. Boys of every age under sixty will be interested in these fascinating volumes.

Handsomely printed in large type on fine paper. Splendidly bound in cloth, with decorated covers.

1 THE HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN; Or, Dick & Co.'s First Year Pranks and Sports.

2 THE HIGH SCHOOL PITCHER; Or, Dick & Co. on the Gridley Diamond.

3 THE HIGH SCHOOL LEFT END; Or, Dick & Co. Grilling on the Football Gridiron.

4 THE HIGH SCHOOL CAPTAIN OF THE TEAM; Or, Dick & Co. Leading the Athletic Vanguard.

Real Americanism is the compelling interest of these books, and the true manliness of Dick & Co. will at once excite the admiration of the reader. Healthy in tone these stories bring home forcibly the value of scholarship in after life. The breezy and vigorous spirit of outdoor life permeates the entire series, and any young American is bound to be better in mind and body for having made the acquaintance of the High School Boys.

THE AUTOMOBILE GIRLS SERIES

By LAURA DENT CRANE

THERE is no room for doubt that these are the most interesting stories ever penned for girls. There isn't a dull page in one of these books. Nor is there a line that is in the slightest degree unwholesome. The stories are written of sane, fun-loving daughters of cultivated families. No girl's library—no family book-case can be considered at all complete unless it contains these sparkling twentieth-century books, written for present-day girls.

1 THE AUTOMOBILE GIRLS AT NEWPORT; Or, Watching the Summer Parade.

2 THE AUTOMOBILE GIRLS IN THE BERKSHIRES; Or, The Ghost of Lost Man's Trail.

3 THE AUTOMOBILE GIRLS ALONG THE HUDSON; Or Fighting Fire in Sleepy Hollow.

THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Origin and Purpose. The Academy was organized December 14, 1889, to provide a national forum for the discussion of political and social questions. The Academy does not take sides upon controverted questions, but seeks to secure and present reliable information to assist the public in forming an intelligent and accurate opinion.

Publications. The Academy publishes annually six volumes dealing with the six most prominent current social and political problems. Each volume contains from twenty to twenty-five papers upon the same general subject. The larger number of the papers published are solicited by the Academy; they are serious discussions, not doctrinaire expressions of opinion. The Academy publications, now approaching one hundred in number, give the most comprehensive account anywhere obtainable of the political and social questions that have been before the American people during the past twenty years.

Meetings. The Academy holds five scientific sessions each year during the winter months, and it also has an annual meeting in April, extending over two full days and including five sessions. The papers of permanent value presented at the meetings are included in the Academy publications.

Membership. Membership in the Academy may be secured by applying to the Secretary, Logan Hall, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. The membership fee is $5.00; life membership fee, $100. Members receive all the regular publications of the Academy, are invited to attend and take part in the scientific meetings, and have the privilege of applying to the Publication Board for information upon current political and social questions.

THE ANNALS OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

A bi-monthly periodical, sent free to members of the Academy. Each number contains about 200 pages, devoted to Leading Articles and Book Reviews. Six numbers making two volumes yearly. Important supplements. Subscription price to non-members, $6.00. Special rates to Libraries, $5.00

The Academy publishes six special volumes annually, each devoted to some great national question. A prominent feature of THE ANNALS is the Book Department.

THE ANNALS also includes occasional supplements, which are separate monographs or translations of notable foreign books. Among the volumes recently issued separately as supplements to THE ANNALS are the following:

"Corporations and Public Welfare." Pp. 208.

"The Pan-American Conferences and Their Significance." Pp. 22.

"Child Labor Legislation. Handbook, 1907," "1908." Compiled by JOSEPHINE GOLDMARK. Pp. 64 and 68.

NOTICE TO PURCHASERS

Orders. Each order should be clearly written and signed by the purchaser. It should give the post-office, county, and State, and also indicate whether the goods are to be sent by mail, express, or freight; and, where the name of the railroad or express station differs from that of the post-office, it should be stated.

Exact Titles. All orders should give the exact titles of the books as printed in our price lists; otherwise, we can not be held responsible for errors in shipping. In ordering by telegraph, purchasers should use the code words given in this Price List.

Order Early. Orders are usually filled on the day on which they are received, but just before the opening of schools this is not always possible. To insure prompt delivery due allowance should be made for unavoidable detentions and orders should be sent early.

Special. We supply only our own publications. Where any of our printed books are not readily obtainable through the trade, they will be sent by us postpaid on receipt of the list prices. Books sent as ordered are not returnable. Orders for first introduction must give the names of the books to be displaced as well as those to be introduced. Keys and Translations will be supplied to teachers only.

Remittances. Each order should be accompanied by a remittance, unless the purchaser has an open account. Remittances by draft are preferred, but post-office money orders or express money orders may be used, if more convenient. Purchasers who wish to open an account should apply for terms and give references showing financial ability, promptness, and general responsibility.

WEBSTER'S SCHOOL DICTIONARIES

WEBSTER'S PRIMARY SCHOOL DICTIONARY

Cloth, 12mo, 336 pages. Containing over 20,000 words and meanings, with over 400 illustrations. 48 cents

The proper pronunciation of words in the Primary Dictionary is indicated by respelling with phonetic markings. The vocabulary is limited almost entirely to English words, all words not important to the class for which the book is intended, and special lists and phrases, being omitted.

WEBSTER'S COMMON SCHOOL DICTIONARY

Cloth, 12mo, 432 pages. Containing over 25,000 words and meanings, with over 500 illustrations. 72 cents

The pronunciation of every word is shown by respelling with phonetic markings, and the pronunciation of unaccented syllables is accurately indicated. Condensation has been accomplished by omitting definitions of derived words, mostly adverbs, adjectives, and abstract nouns, which are self-explaining.

WEBSTER'S HIGH SCHOOL DICTIONARY

Cloth, 12mo, 560 pages. Containing about 37,000 words and definitions, with over 800 illustrations. 98 cents

This dictionary gives the correct orthography, pronunciation, and definition of all words with which pupils of the high school grade are likely to meet. It also includes a guide to pronunciation; a table of prefixes and suffixes; rules for spelling certain classes of words; and a pronouncing vocabulary of biblical, classical, mythological, historical, and geographical proper names.

WEBSTER'S ACADEMIC DICTIONARY

Cloth, 12mo, 736 pages. Containing about 60,000 words and definitions, with over 800 illustrations. $1.50. Indexed, $1.80
The same. Half calf, $2.75. Indexed, $3.00

This book is abridged directly from the International Dictionary. The definitions are clear, there are many synonyms, and the etymologies are in accordance with the latest scholarship. There are also given a guide to pronunciation; a list of prefixes and suffixes; rules for spelling; a pronouncing vocabulary of biblical, classical, mythological, historical, and geographical proper names; and much other useful information.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARIES

SCHOOL EDITIONS

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARIES are the acknowledged authority throughout the English-speaking world. They are more widely used in the home, the office, and the schoolroom than all others combined. They constitute a complete and progressive series, carefully graded, and adapted for all classes. The spelling and punctuation in all leading schoolbooks are based on these Dictionaries, which are, therefore, a necessity to the teacher.

There have been issued cheap photographic reprints of the old editions of Webster's Dictionaries, and other cheaply made up books unwarrantably using the name Webster to give them standing. These reprints are of editions over fifty years old, and are not only badly printed, but do not contain the words in common use to-day.

The genuine Webster's School Dictionaries are distinguished by the circular trademark which appears on the cover of each, and by the name of the American Book Company on the title page.

Educational Problems

By G. STANLEY HALL, Ph.D., LL.D.

These volumes contain the ripened results of twenty-five years of teaching education as an academic subject. The matter treated is brought up to date, and comprises not only the chief topics of present interest in education but attempts to strike out in the lines of various reforms that seem now impending. Perhaps half of the work is devoted to topics outside the curriculum as it is the most narrowly defined. The chief topics are: pedagogy of the kindergarten, the educational value of dancing and pantomime, pedagogy of music, the religious training of children and the Sunday-school, moral education, children's lies—their psychology and pedagogy, the pedagogy of sex, industrial education, the budding girl, missionary pedagogy, special child-welfare agencies outside the school, preventive and constructive movements, Sunday observing, the German teacher teaches, pedagogy of modern languages, of history, of elementary mathematics, pedagogy and the press, pedagogy of reading—how and what, etc.

ADOLESCENCE

Its Psychology and Its Relations to Physiology, Anthropology, Sociology, Sex, Crime, Religion, and Education

Dr. Hall's "Adolescence" has become generally known as the great work on the Psychology of Youth. There is no book on the subject like it in completeness of data or minuteness of analysis. It is to bring the essentials of this invaluable work within easy reach of parents, teachers, and pupils of advanced grades that the single, smaller volume, "Youth," has been prepared.

Two volumes, 8vo, gilt top, in a box, cloth, $7.50 net

YOUTH

Its Education, Regimen and Hygiene

The topics of the larger work here included are those of immediate practical value to the average teacher and parent. The deductions of the "Adolescence" are retained, but a simple statement of the nature of the statistics leading to them usually replaces the statistical tables. The chapter on "Moral and Religious Training" is new in this connection, being drawn from a later writing of Dr. Hall.

Books by David Graham Phillips

The Conflict

Politics and love are the chief factors of this story. The heroine is the daughter of a capitalist-boss in a Middle Western city. The hero is the leader of the workingmen's party. The conflict between capital and labor as well as the struggle 'twixt love and duty are pictured with all of Mr. Phillips's remarkable realism. 12mo. Cloth, $1.30 net.

The Grain of Dust

The story of a handsome, arrogant, ambitious New York lawyer, with a great legal brain and a prodigious capacity for work, who succumbs completely to the charms of a simple, plain and straightforward little stenographer employed in his office. How this little "Grain of Dust" practically wrecks and then rehabilitates an extraordinary man makes as strong a piece of fiction as Mr. Phillips has given us. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.30 net.

The Husband's Story

"Mr. Phillips's book gets, from the very start, . . . a hold upon us. He has shown us in the lives of this one couple all the artificiality and selfishness, the empty ambitions and false ideals, that lie behind the glitter of the so-called 'Four Hundred.' The husband who tells the story does so with great simplicity and directness."—The Bookman. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

The Hungry Heart

"A study—startlingly frank, disturbingly clear-sighted, and unquestionably clean-minded—of the clash between conventional theory and the actual facts of sex relationship. An interesting piece of fiction and a trenchant dissection of some of our most dearly loved illusions."—Everybody's Magazine. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

Old Wives for New

"This novel is bound to give additional impulse to the discussion of the failure of American marriages. But first of all, it is a story, and an absorbing one. A bold and highly dramatic delineation of contemporary American life, a novel of true power."—Philadelphia Press. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

The Second Generation

The absorbing love story of a young man brought up in idleness and luxury, then suddenly left penniless by his father, who feared that wealth would corrode his soul. "Equals the best of the great story tellers of all time."—Cleveland Plain Dealer. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

White Magic

The story of the love of a wealthy girl for a poor artist. "The novel seems to strike the note of a new era—The Suffragette Period—in which the heroines will woo and the heroes retire."—Boston Transcript. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

The Fashionable Adventures of Joshua Craig

"There never has been a contrast so insistent as this of the rugged, vain, self-confident Western politician among the luxury-loving, trivial-minded butterflies of Washington society. The record of his doings forms an uninterrupted surprise. Mr. Phillips has done good, solid work, and this book is undoubtedly his best."—Louisville Courier Journal. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

Light Fingered Gentry

In this story Mr. Phillips chooses the inside workings of the great insurance companies as his field of battle. "He handles his big subject with a vigor and force that is convincing and blends it so happily with the romance that he has produced a tale second to none of the fiction of the year."—Pittsburg Dispatch. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

The Worth of a Woman

"An extraordinary play—a play for thoughtful people. It is a remarkable piece of work, showing keen logical thought, a daring rush to conclusions, a bold and sportsmanlike grip of an ugly problem."—ALAN DALE. 12mo. Cloth, gilt top, $1.25 net.

What The Interior says of Mr. Barbour's books for boys:

"Of all the stories that are being written for boys, Mr. Barbour's probably take the lead, both by virtue of popularity and merit. They are stirring, full of vigor and wholesome fun, refreshing and fine in tone—just the right kind of fare for the high-spirited modern boy."

Of "Winning His Y" The Continent says:

"One of the pleasantest things about the book is the one of friendship between the fellows—who, by the way, are wholesome, human lads, not a bit story-booky. Another fine feature is its humor. The dialogue is clever, boyish, and funny. Boys will read this book with unflagging interest."

The success of the Men and Religion Forward Movement campaign depends in a large degree upon the activity of the workers in each church. While the teams of specialists will do much it can easily be seen that they can reach comparatively only a few people. This library can go on the table of every pastor, teacher and Christian worker in city or country. It is the answer to the insistent demand for books which are rich in practical suggestions to earnest Christians. A questionnaire was sent to rel gious leaders throughout the country asking them t name books that would be helpful along lines o Boys' Work, Bible Study, Evangelism, Social Service and Missions. This library embodies the join opinion of these men. The cooperation of variou publishers makes it possible to sell these books a such a low price. The leaders of the movement hop for the most extended use of this library. Each boo is chosen because it contains a part of the messag and method of the movement.

AUTUMN, 1911

FRANK PRESTON STEARNS

THE MIDSUMMER OF ITALIAN ART

With 33 full-page illustrations, 12mo, cloth ornamental, gilt tops, $2.00 net. Postage, 12 cents.

A comprehensive account of the greatest Italian painters that will serve both as a book of reference for American travelers in Europe and to revive the recollections of what they have seen after their return.

An easy familiarity with the art history of the country, a keen appreciation of sincere, honest work, a lively realization of the painters' motives and aims, cause Mr. Stearns to write with an enthusiasm that is quite contagious. The work contains a thorough and complete analysis of the works of Raphael, Michelangelo, Leonardo Da Vinci, and Correggio.

The illustrations, thirty-three in number, are particularly good selections from the work of these artists. There is a complete index and the make-up of the volume is excellent.

CHANNING POLLOCK

THE FOOTLIGHTS—FORE AND AFT

With 50 full-page drawings by Warren Rockwell, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

This is a book of the theater, not a book of the drama—there is quite a difference. Mr. Pollock writes as a reporter rather than as a philosopher. He severely lets alone the drama of Greece and Rome. The drama of Forty-second Street and Broadway is his field and he knows it as reporter, as dramatic critic, as press agent, as business manager, and as dramatist. His has been the practical side of playmaking and play producing. He writes of this with a wit, a lightness of touch, and a brightness of manner that is delightful. The Theatre at a Glance, The Writing and Reading of Plays, The Personalities of our Playwrights, What Happens at Rehearsals, Something about First Nights, With the People in Stock, In Vaudeville, The Smart Set on the Stage, are some of the chapter heads.

The illustrations are particularly clever and amusing. Warren Rockwell will be remembered as the illustrator of Judge Shute's Plupy, The Real Boy.

KATE SANBORN

HUNTING INDIANS IN A TAXI-CAB

With 51 illustrations. 8vo, cloth ornamental, gilt top, $1.50 net. Postage, 10 cents.

From "Adopting an Abandoned Farm" to "Hunting Indians in a Taxi-Cab" seems a most natural change. The Indians falling before Miss Sanborn's trenchant pen are the wooden variety, once the familiar insignia of the cigar store. The race is disappearing almost as rapidly as that of flesh and blood, and the many pictures Miss Sanborn has secured gives the book a unique and lasting value. The book is most attractively printed and bound.

HENRY JAMES

THE HENRY JAMES YEAR BOOK

Compiled by Evelyn Garnaut Smalley, with an introduction by Henry James and William Dean Howells. Frontispiece in Photogravure. Marker, 12mo, flexible cloth, $1.50 net, limp leather, $2.00 net. Postage, 15 cents.

All lovers of Henry James will regard this volume as a public benefaction. The delicate wit, the urbane humor, the quiet wisdom, the unfailing good temper that have made for him such enthusiastic admirers will be found even more strikingly apparent in this detached setting, that would prove so fatal to inferior inscriptions. The arrangement gives only one or two days to the page, thus leaving ample room for birthday or other inscriptions.

Particular attention has been paid to the bookmaking, the printing being in red and black throughout on an India tint paper and the binding in either the cloth or leather is very pleasing. There is a marker in each style and the frontispiece in photogravure is from a new portrait of Mr. James.

ANNA SHELDON CAMP SNEATH

THE POETS' SONG OF POETS

Illustrated by portraits, 12mo, marker, semi-flexible cloth, $1.50 net. Full flexible leather, $2.50 net. Postage, 15 cents.

This is at once a unique and exceedingly interesting anthology, being, as the title indicates, a collection of poems in which the poets express their appreciation and estimate of their fellow-poets. It is quite remarkable what a body of verse is represented and how thoroughly and accurately the poets "size up" their fellow-poets. Besides furnishing a good collection of verse, the book really constitutes an interesting and valuable contribution to literary criticism. The poems are chronologically arranged from Chaucer to Browning.

An interesting feature of the book is the series of portraits. The bookmaking is particularly attractive.

ROBERT HAMIL NASSAU

WHERE ANIMALS TALK

West African Folk-Lore Tales. 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

Fifty years' work as African missionary, pioneer, and explorer has enabled Mr. Nassau to gather a really remarkable volume of folk-lore. All of these tales have been current for hundreds, perhaps thousands of years, being transmitted verbally from one generation to the next. None of the legends have ever before appeared in English.

HOPE HUNTLY

THE WAY OF THE GODS IN JAPAN

13 full-page illustrations. 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

The "way of the gods" is traversed in its ethical, philosophical, and romanticaspects and in this way reaches the highest ideals and culture of the Japanese character. The book is an intimate revelation of the Shinto religion.

ROBERT D. BENEDICT

STORIES FROM THE OLD FRENCH CHRONICLES

12mo, semi-flexible, ornamental cloth, with marker, gilt top, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

This volume contains seventeen tales selected from the work of French chroniclers from the fourteenth to the seventeenth centuries. These tales given at first hand by writers who took part in the events have a genuine historic value as showing the camp and court life of the time. None of these stories have ever before appeared in English.

HARRY AUBREY TOULMIN, JR.

SOCIAL HISTORIANS

With an introduction by Charles W. Kent. 12mo, antique boards, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

Thomas Nelson Page, Charles Egbert Craddock, George W. Cable, James Lane Allen, and Joel Chandler Harris are the social historians whose work Mr. Toulmin considers in five well-rounded papers. The title of the book is most happily descriptive. The work is at once a notable addition to literary criticism and sociology.

ERVIN F. LYON

THE SUCCESSFUL YOUNG WOMAN

With an introduction by Katie Daffan. Illustrated and printed in two colors throughout, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 10 cents.

The author of this attractive and helpful volume has treated his subject in a practical, forceful manner that will make the book of genuine help.

Particular attention has been paid to the format of the volume, making it especially suitable as a gift book.

ANNA MATHEWSON AND ENRICO CARUSO

THE SONG OF THE EVENING STARS

14 full-page illustrations, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

This is the only volume of verse upon the subject of grand opera. It deals humorously with the well-known singers, conductors, and managers, with the audiences and the operas themselves. The fourteen full-page caricatures by Caruso show that he can use his fingers as effectively as his voice. It is the gift of all others for a musical friend.

ANGIE WARREN PERKINS

OUR YEAR ABROAD

Random Rambles in the Old World. 16 full-page illustrations, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 10 cents.

A book of travel to the out-of-the-way places of Europe. Corners that the ordinary traveler never touches were reached during this year abroad. The descriptions of the manners and people are excellent.

MAX MEYER

THE FUNDAMENTAL LAWS OF HUMAN BEHAVIOR

With 55 drawings. 12mo, cloth, $2.00 net. Postage, 15 cents.

What this book proposes to do is essentially an investigation into the problem contained in the following question: What are the simplest assumptions necessary and sufficient, to explain hypothetically the facts of human behavior as dependent on the function of the nervous system? Having answered this question, it attempts to illuminate the deep-rooted habit of describing human behavior as dependent on subjective states, on states of consciousness, a habit which still largely governs the sciences of human society, preventing them from throwing off the shackles of subjectivity.

To make clear the functional changes which occur in the nervous system, and which, determining the individual's life activity, are of tremendous importance to the individual and to society. The book is illustrated by more than fifty remarkably ingenuous diagrams.

MAXIMILIAN P. E. GROSZMANN

THE CAREER OF THE CHILD

From the Kindergarten to the High School. 12mo, cloth, $2.50 net. Postage, 15 cents.

Probably the most comprehensive work on the intelligent education of the child yet published. The book is the result of many years of practical educational work, and more particularly of the author's creative organizing activity in the years 1890 to 1897, as superintendent of the "Ethical Culture Schools" of New York, which have been a source of practical experience to a great many educators.

An important feature is a complete system of suggestions for the entire career of the elementary school, such as can be almost immediately adjusted to various local conditions.

SOME FUNDAMENTAL VERITIES IN EDUCATION

Illustrated, 12mo, cloth, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

This work is really a companion or introductory volume to Professor Groszmann's larger work on The Career of the Child. An interesting feature of this volume is the many examples given of children's drawings in the different grades.

L. R. KLEMM, PH.D.

PUBLIC EDUCATION IN GERMANY AND IN THE UNITED STATES

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

This work by the United States government specialist in foreign education is a notable addition to pedagogical literature. The scope of the book is a wide one, divided into more than forty sections, with numerous illustrations. The book is an attempt to contribute something toward a mutual understanding between those two nations which, educationally considered, are at the head of the column of civilization. A particularly valuable feature of the book is the large number of school room lessons it contains.

EMILY S. HAMBLEN

FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE AND HIS NEW GOSPEL

12mo, cloth, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

After a strangely long period of indifference, America is beginning to open its mind to the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche. Nietzsche is more than an individual voice, he is the mouthpiece of the modern world. In him its most secret impulses and tendencies have come to the threshold of consciousness, and in the interest of sanity, safety, and justice every writer and every reader taking up this compelling genius must make the heroic attempt to sound his depths. Miss Hamblen has divided her work into the following sections, Personality, Style, Biological Principles, Revaluation of the Past, Social Philosophy, Woman, Zarathustra, Beyond Man, Eternal Recurrence. The book is easily the clearest, most concise, and comprehensive summary of the new gospel of Nietzsche that has yet been published.

ALBERT H. CURRIER, D.D.

THE PRESENT DAY PROBLEM OF CRIME

12mo, cloth, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

The full title of this volume gives an excellent summary of its contents: The Present Day Problem of Crime as Related to Prisons and Prison Discipline, to the Administration of Criminal Law, and to the Labors of Philanthropists for the Prevention of Crime and the Reformation of Criminals. This work is undoubtedly the most complete and intelligent summing up of the whole matter of prison reform yet published.

GENERAL THEODORE A. BINGHAM

THE GIRL THAT DISAPPEARS

The Real Facts of the White Slave Traffic. Illustrated, 12mo, cloth, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

This book by the former Police Commissioner of Greater New York tells the facts clearly and convincingly. He handles the question without gloves and suggests what his experience has taught him is the only practical solution.

LEON C. PRINCE, PH.D.

THE SENSE AND NONSENSE OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

12mo, cloth, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

A clean-cut, lucid exposition, not only of the Christian Science movement, but of the philosophy and method of faith cure generally, under whatever name or form its works are manifest.

CARL HERMON DUDLEY

ST. PAUL'S FRIENDSHIPS AND HIS FRIENDS

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50 net. Postage, 10 cents.

Omitting the names of Peter and John, the friends of Paul were men of far higher culture and ability than the rest of the Twelve. While the New Testament furnishes many references to Paul's friends this is the first work in which a full rounded treatment has been given to them all.

EUGENE S. TALBOT, M. D.

DEVELOPMENTAL PATHOLOGY

A Study in Degenerative Evolution. With 346 illustrations, large 8vo, buckram, leather label, $6.00 net. Express extra.

Developmental pathology may be regarded as the domain of pathology which deals with departures of structures and organs from the normal along the line of arrests of fetal evolution, either in structure or in the biochemic states underlying functions or potentialities of development at given periods of growth. Atrophies, with or without resultant hypertrophies, and vice versa are underlain by its laws.

The object of this book, tersely stated, is to show:

First, that the ontogeny of man, his structures and organs, is a modified recapitulation of his phylogeny in development.

Second, that as the vertebral phase appears early in embryogeny, an unstable nervous system checked by parental defects, eruptive fevers, and other agencies at the periods of stress in the child, affects phylogeny and ontogeny.

THOMAS S. BLAIR, M. D.

PUBLIC HYGIENE

With 158 illustrations. Large 8vo, buckram, leather labels, 2 volumes in a box, $10.00 net. Express extra.

This is not only the most important work on Public Hygiene, but as a matter of fact it is the only one covering this vital subject in all its phases and has had immediate recognition as such. The War Department, most of the State Boards of Health and the Department of Public Health and Marine Service have given it their prompt and hearty endorsement. Two editions have already been shipped to England.

CHARLES D. FOX, M.D.

THE PSYCHOPATHOLOGY OF HYSTERIA

12mo, cloth, $1.75 net. Postage, 15 cents.

This is the only work yet published in English in which this disease as a whole has been treated on the basis of the results of recent psychopathologic researches. The work is an exposition of the modern conception of hysteria entertained by the foremost contemporary students of abnormal psychology.

ADOLF MEYER—AUGUST HOCH—SMITH ELY JELLIFFE

DEMENTIA PRÆCOX

8vo, cloth, $2.00 net. Postage, 7 cents.

This volume is easily one of the most important contributions yet made to the literature of this subject, now of so much interest to all physicians and psychologists. Dr. Meyer gives a general conception of this disease, Dr. Jelliffe describes the constitutional factors and Dr. Hoch its psychological mechanism.

JOHN LUTHER LONG

BABY GRAND

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.35 net. Postage, 15 cents.

This new novel by the author of Madame Butterfly contains seven of his most delightful stories,—Baby Grand; Tom, Dick and Harry—et cetera. The Little Lady Who Wouldn't Spoil Christmas; Spilled Milk; Dull Jim; My Lost Lady; Dolly-Jack.

WILLIAM LE QUEUX

THE MONEY SPIDER

Frontispiece in color, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 15 cents.

This is the most thrilling story yet written by this master of mystery. The scene is laid in the Arctic, the mystery is unusually well sustained, and the reader's interest is held to the very end. Those who like a detective story or a story of adventure will go far to find something better than The Money Spider. By the same author, The Great God Gold, 12mo, cloth, ornamental, $1.50.

FLORENCE MORSE KINGSLEY

FRANCESCA

Frontispiece in color, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 10 cents.

This new story by the author of The Transfiguration of Miss Philura has a genuine charm that is likely to secure for it the same phenomenal sale enjoyed by the earlier book. The scene of the story is laid in Italy and in New York.

PAUL HARCOURT BLADES

DON SAGASTO'S DAUGHTER

A Romance of Southern California. 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50.

Here is a story that will carry the reader along with breathless interest. All the passions and antagonisms of the speculating American spirit and the poetic, ancestral Mexican, clashing in Southern California, fill the large canvas of this novel with unforgetable characters and action. The Mexican heroine, Felicia, and her lover the American Hemperton, are drawn with compelling art. The plot is enthralling and to the end carries its mysterious purposes with well-balanced ingenuity.

U. S. LESH

A KNIGHT OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50.

This is a vigorous copperhead story that proves that one more novel could be written about the Civil War and still say something new. The interest is remarkably well sustained and the action particularly brisk.

ELIZABETH WINTHROP JOHNSON

ONE CHANCE IN A HUNDRED

12 mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 15 cents.

This is a strong story of the West of to-day based on Thoreau's lines,

"May not Love have some resting place on the earth as sure as the sunshine on a rock?"

CLARA VIOLA FLEHARTY

A WILD ROSE

Frontispiece, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 11 cents.

This is a picture of real life with a most delightful blending of the humorous and pathetic. It is a healthful, helpful book that will make a wide appeal.

THE RADIANCE OF THE MORNING CLUB

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 11 cents.

This second book by Miss Fleharty is a fascinating story for boys and girls and their parents. A genuine home story, wholesome, pure, and inspiring.

G. A. DENNEN

THE DAWN MEADOW

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.00 net. Postage, 10 cents.

A house party is locked by the earthquake in a mountain meadow of the Sierras. What happens to these five people, reduced from the luxuries of life to an isolated, primitive condition, is full of thrilling interest. Around this situation the author has woven a romance full of charm and spirit, framing it in the spell of California's wonderful and enthralling mountain scenery. No one reading this story but will long for some such ill wind that blew such happiness to the hero and heroine of Mrs. Onverell's house party.

MARY PUTNAM DENNY

THE PROPHET OF FLORENCE

Frontispiece, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 12 cents.

Savanarola is the Prophet and the central figure in this story, tense with all the vital passions of life and the struggles of the age.

MILES G. HYDE

THE CONFESSION AND LETTERS OF TERENCE QUINN McMANUS

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.00 net. Postage, 12 cents.

Terence belongs to the class of young Irish-Americans who seek in a college education augmented intellectual power for life's practical affairs—but with the higher education he retains the valiant heart, the love of romance, and the refreshing humor that are the imperishable heritage of the Irish race.

JUDGE HENRY A. SHUTE

PLUPY—THE REAL BOY

With 53 full-page silhouettes by Warren Rockwell, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50.

Plupy is perennial, hence his inclusion among our new books. "This further account of the doings, ideas, and experiences of that same Plupy whose 'Diary' has had a hundred thousand delighted readers is quite the equal of the first book in its truthful revelation of boy nature. The very spirit of boyhood, with its imperious call to constant activity, is as manifest in this continuation of Plupy's autobiography as it was in his diary."—New York Times.

CORA MARSLAND

THE ANGEL OF THE GILA

Illustrated, 12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.50.

This is a story of Arizona of to-day, showing the effect one woman may have on an entire community. The heroine is a Massachusetts Quaker, a Wellesley graduate, and the scenes are laid in a rough mining town. Many of the situations are wonderfully dramatic.

DORA M. M. GOODWIN

THE DAUGHTER OF ANGY

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 10 cents.

A novel of to-day that will find as many interested readers on account of its delightful descriptions of travel through unusual places and scenes as for the story itself. The gound covered is from California to Egypt.

KATE SLAUGHTER MCKINNEY

THE WEED BY THE WALL

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.25 net. Postage, 12 cents.

A story of artist life in Alabama that will not only make a wide appeal throughout the South for its remarkable local color, but will likewise interest lovers of good fiction everywhere, both for its interest as a story and the strength of its character painting.

MAY STRANATHAN

THE HUFF CASE

12mo, cloth ornamental, $1.00 net. Postage, 8 cents.

A particularly powerful detective story.

CHARLES S. WOOD

CHRISTMAS AT BIG MOOSE FALLS

12mo, cloth ornamental, 75 cents net. Postage, 8 cents.

This story of Christmas in a lumber camp in central Wisconsin in the early seventies is particularly appropriate as a Christmas gift. The story has true local color and is full of the spirit of winter life in the forest.

JULIA H. JOHNSTON

WHO WAS IT? STORIES

12 full-page illustrations, 12mo, cloth ornamental, 50c. net. Postage, 10 cents.

In this little book Miss Johnston has conferred a benefaction on alert children and extended a helping hand to a great host of earnest mothers often at the end of their invention when it comes to the constant entertainment and instruction of the little ones. Thirty-nine stories from the Bible have been retold by Miss Johnston and so arranged that after the reading of each story the children may guess the unnamed chief character.

MARION CRAIG-WENTWORTH

THE FLOWER-SHOP

12mo, antique boards, $1.50.

Mrs. Marion Craig-Wentworth, so widely known for her readings, here gives evidence of even greater talent in another direction. The play is in three acts, based on the true theory of socialism.

THE STORY OF THE SOIL

Illustrated, 12mo, cloth, $1.50 net. Postage, 12 cents.

A new edition is now ready of this book, which The Prairie Farmer calls "The greatest work of fiction based on agriculture ever written." "I must say that I think the book is destined to do more good, stir more thought, encourage more upward effort among the farmers of this country than any other publication that has yet appeared. It was a happy thought making a human story of it," says Ex-Governor W. D. Hoard, Ex-President Board of Regents, University of Wisconsin and Editor of Hoard's Dairyman.

PETER PAN

Retold in story form from J. M. Barrie's dramatic fantasy.

Edited by G. D. Drennan.

This is the true story of Peter Pan, so dear to the hearts of children and immortalized by the incomparable acting of Maude Adams. The true tale of the Never, Never, Never Land now for the first time told in story form and with an ingenuous and simple directness that must appeal as strongly to the grown-ups as to the children, will ever have a place among the juvenile classics of its day. A fantasy with a meaning—a fairy tale with picturesque setting. In the very front of each book one may find the real picture of Peter Pan—a portrait in color and just as our mind has painted him.

Cloth, gilt top, size 6¾ x 4¼ inches, 75c.

Velvet calf, boxed, $1.25.

THE POEMS OF OSCAR WILDE

There is probably no author of contemporary prominence who has attained to such a degree of popularity through the medium of eccentricity and a genius little understood than has Oscar Wilde. The bulk, however, of Wilde's writings and especially the poetry, is unknown to many readers, though in this field he is entitled to a place among the greatest writers of his day.

This edition contains the collected verse, including the immortal Ballad of Reading Gaol, the fantastic Flowers of Gold and other equally remarkable poems, however but little known at the present time.

The binding is designed to appeal to the lover of poetry, the sides being of art paper with monogram in gold, with gold-stamped white vellum back.

12mo., boxed. Net, $1.50.

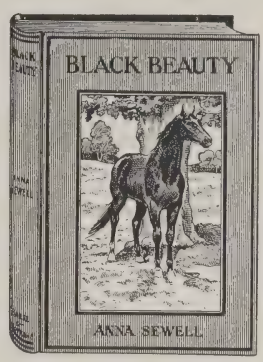
BLACK BEAUTY

Illustrated With Twelve Full Page Paintings

BY

ROBERT L. DICKEY



This great classic of animal lore never fails to awaken e sympathies and delight of children, and this interest is eatly accentuated by the "pictures," when of a kind to peal, not to fancy, but portraying the horse as they see m every day of their lives. In this new and beautiful edi-on of Black Beauty appear for the first time reproductions twelve paintings from the brush of Robert L. Dickey, one the foremost horse painters of this or any age; pictures full color and fairly alive with life and action. There is certain grace and naturalness in these paintings of our ruest friends" that cannot fail to impress upon the reader w well the artist knew his subject; there lies within such intings a source of continual delight to the lover of dumb imals, and particularly to the lover of Black Beauty.

In keeping with the excellence of the illustrations this edition is, in all other re-ects, truly an innovation in the manufacture of Children's Books. The type is ge, the plates being absolutely new, and printed on the finest quality of paper. ie binding selected as being the best grade of art cloth to be had, dark green in lor, with richly gold-tooled title and a cover inlay of one of Mr. Dickey's master-ces in full color.

Cloth, size 6¼ x 8¾ inches, boxed, $1.50.

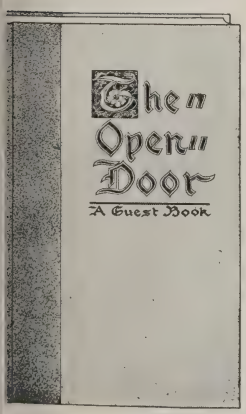
THE "OPEN DOOR"

A GUEST BOOK

By CORNELIA MORTON WEYBURN



An unusually attractive book in which may be kept the autographs of one's guests and a record of events and entertainments. THE WEALTH OF FRIENDSHIP

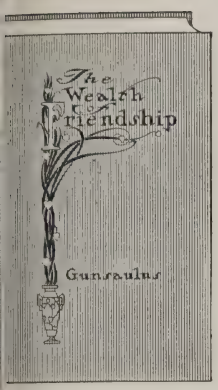
Compiled by Wallace and Frances Rice



WITH A PREFATORY HOMILY ON

FRIENDSHIP

By the REV. FRANK W. GUNSAULUS

Dr. Gunsaulus, the most popular pulpit and platform lecturer in the United States, has written the introduction for the most inclusive selection of extracts regarding friendship ever brought together in a single volume. He has seen in the theme of friendship the basis of all true religion, and has stamped with his approval the work of the compilers. They turn have exhausted English literature from the time of Queen Elizabeth to that President Taft in order to present in the briefest possible space the views of all at writers on this most interesting topic. They have drawn extensively on the guages of continental Europe, in many cases making original translations of the timents of the most famous authors and poets there. Several bits of Mr. Rice's herto unpublished verse have been included, leaving this the furthest-reaching mpilation on the finest relation between human beings ever published.

Printed in two colors on fine paper, and bound in lavender silk finish cloth. Cover mped in gold. Size 5 x 8¼ inches.

Attractively boxed, $1.25.

Velvet calf, boxed, $2.00.

THE WEALTH OF LOVE

Compiled by Lewis Haase

There have been few if any love anthologies so com- e or having such an abundance of material from erto unknown sources as The Wealth of Love.

The book is, in fact, all that the title implies; free, vever, from the sentimentality as expressed in the sent-day novel, but rich in the lore of the past, when , the greatest of human emotions, was the power that ted the empires and destroyed the kingdoms of earth.

The book is replete with illustrations, while each tation is admirably set off by conventional ornamen- on and specially designed borders in color, thus pro- ing a most attractive page.

The cover is of extra cloth with handsome gold ing of elaborate design. Size 6 x 8½ inches.

Cloth, boxed, $1.25.

Velvet calf, boxed, $2.00.

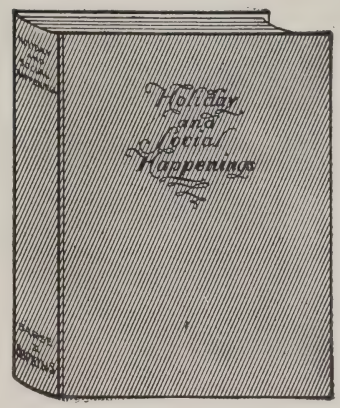
NOTE THIS BOOK MAKES THE VERY BEST KIND OF A CARD PARTY PRIZE

HOLIDAY AND SOCIAL HAPPENINGS



Arranged by Minnie E. Salisbury

Illustrated by Horace Kinney Cranmer

This unique volume is an exceedingly attractive and practical gift book in which one may keep a record of social and holiday happenings and incidents of interest to one's self. Under the various headings, such as "Christmas," "New Year's Day," "Parties and Entertainments," etc., descriptions may be written which will assist one to avoid or repeat the details of a similar event in the future. Under the headings, "Special Occasions," "Miscellaneous," "Trips," etc., many happy and interesting events may be recorded, and as time goes on this chronicle of happenings may prove a pleasure and solace, dispelling the shadow of age with the sunshine of youth. Handsomely illustrated throughout and printed in three colors on a superior grade of paper having a good writing surface.

Paste grain, boxed, $2.50.

Velvet calf, boxed, $2.50.

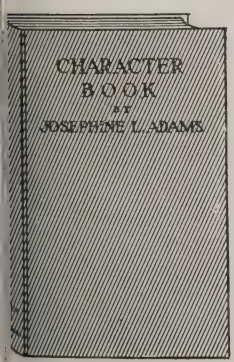
CHARACTER BOOK



Arranged by Josephine L. Adams

This book is prepared for and dedicated to "the girls." It is for their girl friends to write in, being left with many inviting blank spaces for the answer to interesting questions about their favorite people, songs, amusements, plays, books and other things one naturally wants to know about. The sum total of all these queries not only furnishes lots of fun at the time of writing, but also gives a good character study of the writer and a souvenir of one's friends, which every girl will be glad to treasure.

It is said that life is made up of little things. Certainly, as we look back, these trifles often seem of most interest and value to us. And it is in order to preserve some of these stray bits of gold dust that this CHARACTER BOOK has been prepared—at the suggestion of one clever girl.

Cloth, 12mo, 75c.

Persian ooze, boxed, $1.25.

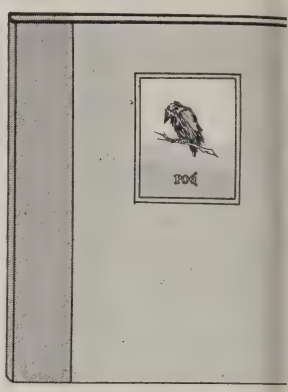
THE RAVEN



The Art Edition of The Raven, by Edgar Allan Poe, is absolutely without type or letter-press work, and shows probably the most elaborate treatment ever accorded the classic Raven. The book is about 8 x 10 inches, and contains hand proofs from thirteen photogravure plates, which were done from originals in oil by Mr. Calen J. Perrett, a very accomplished artist.

Mr. Perrett has faithfully portrayed his idealized conception of Leonore, as well as that of the underlying theme of the poem.

The text was etched on copper plates from original hand-lettered "Copy" and placed in panels in the manner shown.

The edition is printed in sepia on heavy vellum, interleaved with cream vellum.

Boards, size 8¼ x 10 inches, boxed, $3.00.

Velvet calf, boxed, $5.00.

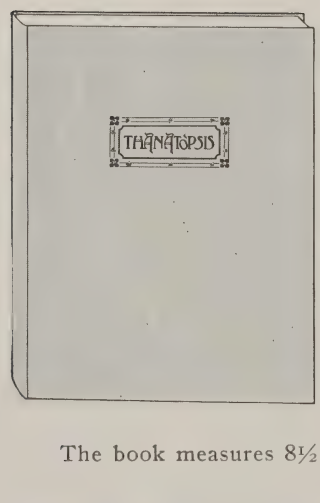
THANATOPSIS

BY

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT



The present is an edition of Bryant's masterpiece in which the artistic embellishments and mechanical execution are worthy of the beauty and grandeur of the poem.

There are thirty full-page etchings on copper after designs by Walworth Stillson, who has spent many years studying Nature in all her visible forms, until the same inspiration which prompted the writing of the words compelled him to express their meaning in these beautiful works of art.

This is essentially a hand-made book, both the text and the illustrations being hand-printed from intaglio copper plates.

The book measures 8½ x 11 inches, and is bound in Japanese vellum, boxed, $5.00

Velvet calf, boxed, $7.00.

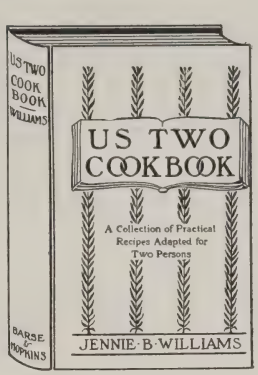
US TWO COOK BOOK

A Collection of Practical Recipes Adapted for Two Persons

Compiled by Jennie B. Williams



Have you not often heard the remark made by the young housewife, when speaking of the legion of cook books that are now on the market, "They are all prepared for families"? Well, that is just the reason why Jennie B. Williams has undertaken and now offers to the public the "Us Two Cook Book." Every recipe has been carefully estimated and tested—the ingredients reduced so as to supply the requirements of two persons.

12mo, cloth, $1.00.

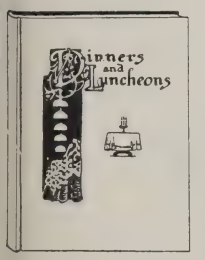
DINNERS AND LUNCHEONS

Compiled by Paul Pierce



The busy housewife is ever seeking for something new—for unique ideas for these occasions. This book is full of suggestions—"Ice Breakers, for Getting the Company Started Right," "Sentiments and Quotations for Dinner Menus," "Dinners for Patriotic and Special Occasions and Appropriate Table Stories and Toasts," "Favors and Place Cards," "Helps Over Hard Places," "Don'ts for the Table," "Passing the Loving Cup" are some of the many hints.

SUPPERS

Compiled by Paul Pierce

This is a subject of which there has been very little written, and offers a great opportunity for the display of unique and novel ideas. This book is full of such. Here are some of the subjects treated:

"Buffet Suppers," "Dutch Suppers," "Stag Suppers," "After the Play and Sunday Evening Suppers," "Bohemian Suppers," "Suppers for Patriotic, Holiday and Special Occasions," with toasts and stories for all these occasions.

Cloth, size 6¼ x 4½ inches, 50c.

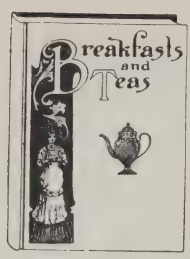
BREAKFASTS AND TEAS

Compiled by Paul Pierce



A book containing some new ideas for Breakfasts and Teas will be welcomed by the perplexed hostess. Here are some of the suggestions:

"Chrysanthemum Breakfast," "Bon Voyage Breakfast," "A Club Breakfast," "A Gypsy Tea," "Book Title Tea," "Fancywork Tea," "Valentine Tea," "Colonial Tea," etc. With other unique ideas for menus, together with toasts and stories.

Cloth, size 6½ x 4½ inches, 50c.

PARTIES AND ENTERTAINMENTS

Compiled by Paul Pierce

"What shall I do to entertain my friends?" is always the question that confronts the hostess. It is answered here. This little book is made up of new and novel suggestions for all kinds of occasions, something to replace the thread-worn ideas of old-time social usage. Here are some of the chapter headings: "A Rainbow Bridge," "A German Whist," "Golf Euchre," "Valentine's Day," "St. Patrick's Day," "April Fools' Day," "Hallowe'en," "New Year's," "Birthday," "Lawn Parties," "Children's Parties," etc.

Cloth, size 6¼ x 4½ inches, 50c.

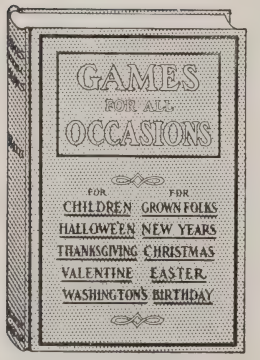
GAMES FOR ALL OCCASIONS

By Mary E. Blain



A most complete book of games for young and old—games for tiny tots—games for children and games for adults. Also games for special occasions, such as

HALLOWE'EN	ST. VALENTINE'S DAY
CHRISTMAS	LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY
EASTER	FOURTH OF JULY
MAY DAY	NEW YEAR'S DAY

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY, ETC.

A great many new and novel suggestions are given as to how to decorate the house and what to serve on these special occasions.

Cloth binding, size 5¼ x 7¾ inches, 60c.

TOASTS AND AFTER-DINNER STORIES

Being a careful selection of the best toasts and sentiments, new and old, gleaned from the writings of standard and popular authors and conveniently arranged for reference. The scope of the subjects is wide and the variety such that this book is all that could be desired in a book of toasts. The latter half of the book is a collection of side-splitting and clever stories as told by the great humorists and well-known after-dinner speakers. Here again the wide range of subjects make this book especially useful and withal highly entertaining. The idea of a combination of toasts and stories (two-books-in-one) is attractive. Cover design in colors from appropriate drawing.

Cloth, size 6¼ x 4½ inches, 50c.

Paste grain leather, boxed, $1.00.

Persian ooze, boxed, $1.00.

TIGHT-WADS

A collection of the best stories that could be found after a careful research, by

R. U. TITE

With seventeen illustrations of different types of "Tight-Wads" you have met, by

CLARE A. BRIGGS,

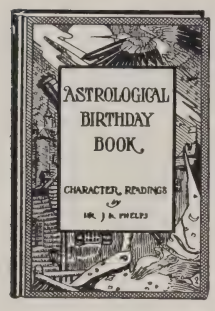
The famous cartoonist of "The Chicago Tribune."

This unique volume presents the Tight-Wad in all his glory, showing him "at home," on the "street car," while "entertaining friends," when "out with the boys," and other places too numerous to mention.

From title to "finis" the book abounds in wit and humor which will make you scream as loud as the eagle on the cover.

Cloth binding with four-color inlay, square 16mo, 50c.

ASTROLOGICAL BIRTHDAY BOOK



By Dr. J. R. Phelps

A widespread interest attaches to this new publication, which may well be designated as psychological. Astrology, as it pertains to birthday readings and delineations of character, has taken on a large following. Dr. Phelps has a plausible style, which carries conviction. There is a reading for each day of the year, in which personal characteristics and natural tendencies are studiously explained, and with subtle variation as to sex. Additional to the birthday readings are departments which include treatises on the subject of diseases common to the different signs of the Zodiac; space for birthday signatures, which is useful in reading the horoscopes of friends and relatives, a pursuit which leads to sensational developments and disclosures.

Printed on India tint paper, with border designs in sepia on every page, the book is one that will please the most fastidious. Cloth, size 8 x 5½ inches, $1.00.

AUNT MARIA'S DRESSING TABLE

A book to paint in and to read.

By Helen Reid Cross

A little book of delightful stories for children, with illustrations in black and white for them to color on the rainy days.

The strange story of The Slippers of Silence, and the wholly original poem recited by The Tortoise-Shell Comb with such interesting and unusual pictures must have a powerful attraction for the youthful reader and juvenile artist.

There are many novelties for children, but none appeals so strongly as a Little Book to Paint In and to Read.

A MANUAL FOR NURSES

By Sydney Welham

In preparing this volume no attempt is made to teach nursing, but the commoner medical and surgical diseases are given, to enable the nurse to deal more intelligently with the particular case, and to give her a clear idea of the reasons for which any particular form of treatment is ordered.

The author is pre-eminently qualified to write on this subject, having for many years been identified with the most celebrated hospitals of England, and at the present time holding positions of great trust in Charing Cross Hospital, W. C., and The Royal National Orthopedic Hospital of London.

BIRTHDAY HOROSCOPES

By Dr. J. R. Phelps

Amusing, entertaining, instructive, because it tells frankly what you are—your character, temperament and latent possibilities for good or evil, as disclosed through the science of Astrology, by the

PLANETARY INFLUENCES ON EVERYBODY'S BIRTHDAY

Startlingly accurate! You read it for your own birthday and are astonished! You read it for your wife's birthday and are amazed! You read it for the different members of your family or your friends, and you wonder what there is in this science of Astrology that gets so close to the truth.

For an evening's entertainment it is a novelty that you are not slow to appreciate. If conversation lags, read aloud one or two of the horoscopes and you'll be busy the rest of the evening.

AMERICAN SKAT

By J. Charles Eichhorn,

Chairman "Committee on Rules" of the North American Skat League.

This book has been endorsed by the NORTH AMERICAN SKAT LEAGUE as the authority on rules.

The rapid strides this great game of cards has made in America can be gathered from the fact that at the First Congress at St. Louis, in 1897, of the North American Skat League just 288 players took part. In 1907, ten years later, at Chicago, 2,700 gentlemen and 600 ladies took part.

The book, "American Skat," is a complete and comprehensive guide for beginners, and a complete treatise of the game as played to-day.

It is also a ready reference on all rulings and plays up to the present time, a condensed glossary of the game of Skat.

Paper, size 5½ x 8 inches, 50c.

COMPLETE COURSES IN CIVIL SERVICE

HOW TO PREPARE FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

By J. W. Calley

In order to help those desiring to take Civil Service Examinations to intelligently and successfully prepare themselves, this book has been written. It was written and compiled by a U. S. Customs Officer, who has made a special study of the different branches of Civil Service, and who is familiar with the needs and requirements of each. There are three general grades of examinations given by the Civil Service Commission, first, second and third grade. This book contains subjects given on each. Matter relative to each subject is divided into lessons, each of which is almost identical in scope and matter with the examinations given by the commission, several of the lessons being exact copies of the questions asked in recent examinations.

The Toyland Series of Juvenile Gift Books

By MARY HERRICK BIRD

THESE books are intended for very young children. There is a minimum of story and a maximum of illustration; each book containing twenty-four color plates, by Joseph C. Claghorn. They are particularly interesting because they appeal to the child's love of personifying everything that he sees; and here we have his dearest possessions, his toys, actually "doing things." They are printed on heavy enameled paper, bound in cloth, and have an inlay picture in full color on the cover. Size, 4⅞ x 6¼ inches. 87 pages each. Per Vol., 35 cents.

Bound in cloth, with a color inlay on cover.

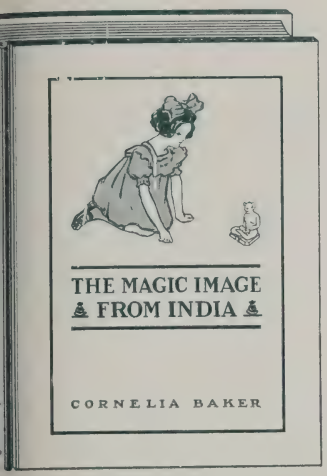
122 pages. Size, 6½ x 8½ inches. $1.25

The Magic Image from India



By
CORNELIA BAKER

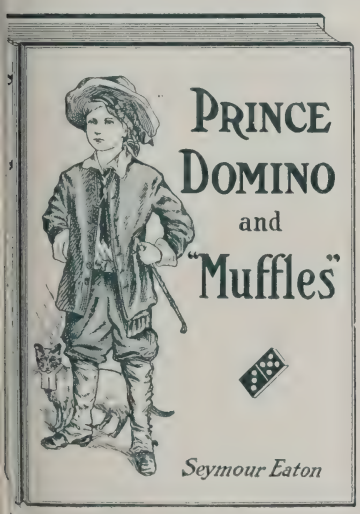
Six full-page color plates by H. B. Lachman and ten full-page pen-drawings by George Reiter Brill

A LIVELY story, brimful of marvelous adventures, in which the characters are compelled at times to play parts not altogether to their liking, and which range from the siege of a mediæval castle to a trip on a flying machine of the future. An up-to-date fairy story which never allows the interest to abate.

Bound in cloth, stamped in colors.

164 pages. Size, 7¾ x 10¼ inches. $1.25

Prince Domino and "Muffles"



By SEYMOUR EATON

Illustrations by C. Twelvetrees

IN "Prince Domino," Mr. Eaton has conferred a favor on young folks, by introducing to them an entirely new character in the realm of juvenile literature. This young prince of mysterious parentage, accompanied by his faithful band of adherents, "Dinkey Dad," "Dutchy" and "Jappy," as well as his wonderful Siamese cat, "Muffles," with his hypnotic blue eyes, travels all over the country smoothing out the many difficulties of the boys and girls he meets. They live as gypsies in the open air, under the bright skies and green trees, and their adventures come thick and fast. The story is clean, wholesome and interesting, and will appeal to every boy and girl who loves the freshness of out-of-doors.

Size, 17 x 9 inches. 146 pages. Seven full-page color plates. Bound in cloth. Color inlay on cover. Twenty-five full-page line-drawings. $1.25

FAIRY TALES FROM GRIMM

Edited and with a Critical Introduction
By
HAMILTON W. MABIE

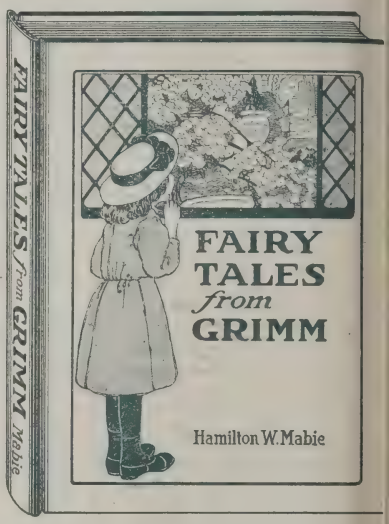
Six full-page color plates, six full-page pen-drawings and border decorations

By
ETHEL FRANKLIN BETTS

A PURELY American edition of the famous Grimm classics, in which Mr. Mabie has selected twelve tales as being characteristic of and representing the whole. His introduction is a new and valuable feature, bringing one, as it does, to an understanding of the conditions under which the stories originated, how they grew and spread all over the world, and why they will be popular as long as there are children to read them.

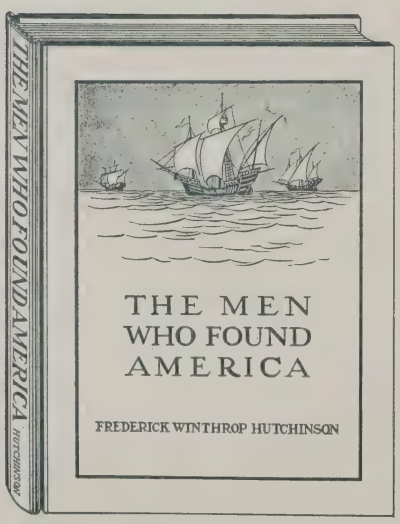
Bound in cloth, with a cut-out color inlay on the cover.

132 pages. Size, 8¾ x 11¼ inches
Text printed in two colors. $1.50



The Men Who Found America

By
FREDERICK WINTHROP HUTCHINSON



Illustrations in Color by
E. Roscoe Shrader and Herbert Moore

Decorations by Edwin J. Prittie

Eight full-page color plates, and a border decoration on every page

TWELVE stories about the brave and daring men who discovered our continent, told for young readers with sympathy and charm. The author has succeeded admirably in making the true tales of these twelve brave men as strange and fascinating as the fairy stories of romance.

Bound in cloth, with a decorative cover, stamped in gold.

158 pages. Size, 8¾ x 11¼ inches
Text printed in two colors. $1.50

FATHER LASANCE
For Young Men

"It is the aim of our little 'Guide' to furnish a Catholic young man with a correct view of the social and religious conditions of modern life and to call his particular attention to the forces and influences that are inimical to the preservation of his faith and innocence; it is intended to be a support and encouragement to the young man in all the circumstances of his life, and, in particular, to stand by his side at the parting of the ways, when he has to choose a definite state of life."—FATHER LASANCE.

What is said of these books:

The Young Man's Guide

"It is a book which, I feel, is needed and which will do much good. The subject-matter of the various chapters has been very judiciously selected, and is presented in a manner that is simple and attractive." — MOST REV. HENRY MOELLER, D.D., Archbishop of Cincinnati.

"My earnest wish is that every young man in America may be the happy owner of one of your guides and that he will put in practice the grand lessons it conveys."—MOST REV. PAUL BRUCHESI, D.D., Archbishop of Montreal.

The Catholic Girl's Guide

"A charming little book, filled with lovely thoughts and prayers that will contribute much to the perfection and happiness of any young girl who will read it."—RIGHT REV. CHARLES H. COLTON, D.D., Bishop of Buffalo.

"I have looked through it and I feel sure that it is a book which will do good among a very large class of Catholic young ladies who need these instructions and generally fail to receive them."—RIGHT REV. CAMILLUS P. MAES, D.D., Bishop of Covington.

FATHER LASANCE
For First Communicants

"This is a very good book. It is an intelligent and conscientious attempt to put within one book all the necessary features of a good preparation for a holy first communion. It is a success; and we congratulate the pious and industrious author."—RIGHT REV. C. P. MAES, D.D., Bishop of Covington.

FATHER LASANCE

"It is a most practical, as well as the most complete, book on the Holy Eucharist that it has been our pleasure to peruse."—Catholic Telegraph.

"The idea is an admirable one to first give in a popular form the main points of the doctrine on the Blessed Eucharist and then to follow this up with the manifold expressions of devotion which naturally and spontaneously emanate from this living fountain of faith."—Rt. Rev. T. S. Byrne, D.D., Bishop of Nashville.

"In this little book will be found precisely the kind of visits which most people will want to make to the Blessed Sacrament. They are short, trustful, and earnest."—Rosary Magazine.

"Any one reading this book can not fail to obtain a deeper knowledge of, and a deeper devotion to, the great mystery of Love, the Adorable Sacrifice of the New Law."—St. Vincent's Journal.

"Father Lasance displays excellent judgment in selecting the material for his books; he seems to understand just what the faithful want, so that there is scarcely a page which is not treasured."—Rosary Magazine.

"Of all books on devotion to the great saint of the Franciscan Order, we unhesitatingly proclaim this to be the best that ever came to our notice."—St. Anthony's Messenger.

"Father Lasance has compiled an extremely practical handbook on the general principles of the religious life. Though this work is primarily intended for sisterhoods, it appeals to a far wider circle of readers. And we feel sure that it will receive a hearty welcome from a large section of the Catholic laity."—Rome.

"This book ought to have a wide circulation among the members of all Religious Orders. One of its chief recommendations is its completeness. Father Lasance may indeed say with truth that he has compiled a prayer-book that will meet the special wants of Religious."—Good Counsel Magazine.

FATHER LINGS

The book contains in an orderly arrangement the numerous forms of the devotions to Our Lord, to the Blessed Virgin, to the Holy Family, to the angels and saints, prayers for the sick and dying and for the departed, including the usual prayers contained in the ordinary prayer-books. This is a manual of devotion which is in every way most complete.

"They ('Our Favorite Devotions' and 'Our Favorite Novenas') are admirable as to size and price and will be a great help in stimulating the piety of all who use them."—MOST REV. P. W. RIORDAN, D.D., Archbishop of San Francisco.

FATHER LINGS

Novenas have always been a favorite mode of prayer, but though many have appeared from time to time, there has been no attempt, until now, to collect the best into one volume. This, then, is the only complete book of its kind published. It contains novenas for almost every possible occasion and applicable to every devotion.

"Your latest works, 'Our Favorite Devotions' and 'Our Favorite Novenas,' by Very Rev. Dean A. A. Lings, are, indeed, the most complete collection of prayers, novenas, litanies, and other devotions. I most earnestly recommend these two gems to our Catholic people."—RIGHT REV. JAMES SCHWEBACH, D.D., Bishop of La Crosse.

Prayer-Books by Well-Known Authors.

BISHOP STANG

"We feel sure that this little book will prove itself a great missioner and be the means of making many a thoughtless Christian desirous of visiting and conversing with Jesus, who is the sinner's best friend."—Good Counsel Magazine.

Fr. STADELMAN, C.S.Sp.

"Thirty-five short meditations, full of instruction and unction intended as preparations and thanksgivings for holy communion. A supplement on doubts and fears concerning frequent communion is added, and completes a useful and edifying little manual for pious souls."—Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

FATHER HAMMER

For First Communicants

The instructions given are complete and admirably clear. The practical Catholic could not have a more practical devotional companion. In addition to the instructions there are all the most necessary prayers.

"The selection of prayers is made up with the wisest judgment. The subjects on which instructions are delivered are judiciously chosen and the instructions are distinct and comprehensive."—Michigan Catholic.

FR. ARNOUDT, S.J.

Greatly resembles the "Following of Christ," but is more regular in plan, more complete, actual, definite.

"The book which is here presented to the English-speaking public is one of those works which possess a merit of their own. It is a book of rare merit, and worthy of keeping company with the immortal 'Following of Christ,' which it resembles, in teaching the highest practical truths, unfeigned esteem of genuine virtue, and a generous spirit of self-denial."—Niagara Rainbow.

FR. HAUSHERR, S.J.

The nature of the book and the object for which it was written is to impart to the reader authentic information concerning the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

"In it will be found abundant suggestions and forms of pious practices taken from the very source of this popular devotion, viz., the writings and private exercises of Blessed Margaret Mary. A careful study will show a steadfast purpose that is commendable and satisfactory to the ardent promoter of the interests of the Heart of Jesus."—The Pilot.

BISHOP EGGER.
For Young Men and Young Women.

A very instructive book; parents could not give their children a more suitable present. Besides being a well-arranged book, it contains short, suitable exhortations about doing the day's work well, about intercourse with others, about going to the sacraments, etc.

BISHOP EGGER.
For the Father.

"If every pastor could induce every father of a family in his congregation to read this book, and to strive to put its directions into practice, the men of our country would soon be more religious than they are to-day."—Emmanuel.

BISHOP EGGER.
For the Mother.

"The ground has been thoroughly covered by the author and his work is replete with sound, practical counsel and instructions for young mothers. It is a work that should be in the hands of every Catholic mother who wishes faithfully and intelligently to discharge the weighty and sacred obligations of her state in life."—Rosary Magazine.

FR. GIRARDEY, C.SS.R.

"The instructions are most important and the pages referring to the crucifix, which the reverend author calls the 'Book of Every Christian,' are full of inspiring thoughts."—Morning Star.

FR. GIRARDEY, C.SS.R.

"If a penitent follows the letter or the spirit of Father Girardey's little book, he may rest assured that his confession will be what God intended it to be, a source of grace flowing into life eternal."—Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

BENZIGER'S MAGAZINE

The Popular Catholic Family Monthly

RECOMMENDED BY 70 ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS

Subscription, $2.00 a Year

What Benziger's Magazine gives its Readers in a single Year.

Three complete novels of absorbing interest—equal to three books at $1.25 each.
Fifty stories by the best writers—equal to a book of 300 pages at $1.25.
One thousand beautiful illustrations.
Twenty-five large reproductions of celebrated paintings.
Twenty articles—equal to a book of 150 pages—on travel and adventure; on the manners, customs and home-life of peoples.
Twenty articles—equal to a book of 150 pages—on historic events, times, places, important industries.
Twenty articles—equal to a book of 150 pages—on the fine arts; celebrated artists and their paintings, sculpture, music, etc.
Twelve pages of games and amusements for in and out-of-doors.
Seventy-two pages of fashions, fads, and fancies, gathered at home and abroad, helpful hints for home workers, cooking recipes, etc.
"Current Events," the important happenings over the whole world.

An Easy Way of Getting Books.

Each year we publish four New Novels by the best Catholic authors. These novels are interesting beyond the ordinary; not strictly religious, but Catholic in tone and feeling.

We ask you to give us a Standing Order for these novels. The price is $1.25 a volume postpaid. The $5.00 is not to be paid at one time, but $1.25 each time a volume is published.

As a Special Inducement for giving us a standing order for these novels, we will give you free a subscription to Benziger's Magazine. This Magazine is recognized as the best and handsomest Catholic magazine published. The regular price of the Magazine is $2.00 a year.

Thus for $5.00 a year — paid $1.25 at a time — you will get four good books and receive in addition free a year's subscription to Benziger's Magazine.

Send $1.25 for the first novel and get your name placed on the subscription list of Benziger's Magazine.

FIFTH EDITION

The Practice of Medicine

With Special Reference to Diagnosis and Treatment

By JAMES TYSON, M. D.

Professor of Medicine in the University of Pennsylvania and Physician to the Hospital of the University; Physician to the Pennsylvania Hospital; Consulting Physician to the Rush Hospital for Consumptives and Allied Diseases, etc.

INCLUDING AN ILLUSTRATED ARTICLE OF 94 PAGES ON

ANIMAL PARASITES

AND THE CONDITIONS CAUSED BY THEM

By ALLEN J. SMITH, M. D.

Professor of Pathology in the University of Pennsylvania

The application of the results of pure science to the practical and immediate demands of Diagnosis and Treatment is a valuable feature of this work.

Its Plain, outspoken statement of facts established leaves no question in the mind of the reader as to the author's convictions.

Its caution of methods not sufficiently tested, and its deference to the work of others, marks the carefulness and scholarship of an author, an investigator, and a worker in original fields.

Its treatment of subjects, both of great and of lesser importance, evidences the painstaking attention and the authority of well-weighed experience which have ever characterized Dr. Tyson's work.

For the thoroughness of the text, its style, its recognition of actual needs, the volume is recommended to the practicing physician, the teacher, the student, as the leading work in this field of greatest importance.

REVIEWS OF PREVIOUS EDITIONS:

"This excellent text-book on the Practice of Medicine has reached its fourth edition. In preparing this edition for the press Dr. Tyson has made those alterations in the text which the progress of knowledge demands. The most significant change is a revision of the section on animal parasites by Dr. Allen J. Smith. The illustrations have been improved and amplified, and various minor changes have also been made. The book in general maintains the standard of excellence with which we have become familiar, and will continue to hold its place as one of the recognized best text-books on general medicine."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

"It is a great pleasure to review such an excellent text-book, which presents to the students so clearly a summary of our knowledge of disease."—Bulletin of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

"Since the first edition of this work saw the light it has made for itself an assured place in the literature of medicine comparable to that held by Niemeyer or Bristow a quarter of a century ago, and for the book itself little more remains to be said.

"In the present edition the author tells us the section dealing with the infectious diseases has been subjected to special scrutiny and revision, the additions and alterations here being so numerous as to necessitate a resetting of this entire portion of the work.

"The sections dealing with pathology, symptomatology, and diagnosis are throughout classical in their completeness and accuracy of description."—Medical Record, New York.

THIRD EDITION

Brubaker's Text-book of PHYSIOLOGY

A TEXT-BOOK OF HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY, INCLUDING A SECTION ON PHYSIOLOGICAL APPARATUS.

By ALBERT P. BRUBAKER, A. M., M. D.,

Professor of Physiology and Medical Jurisprudence in the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia
Professor of Physiology in the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery; author of "A Compend of Physiology," etc.

This New Edition has been very thoroughly Revised and in parts Rewrittten.

With Colored Plates and 383 other Illustrations.
Octavo, xii+752 Pages. Cloth, $3.00.

THE object in view in the preparation of this volume was the selection and presentation of the more important facts of physiology, in a form which it is believed will be helpful to students and to practitioners of medicine. Inasmuch as the majority of students in a medical college are preparing for the practical duties of professional life, such facts have been selected as will not only elucidate the normal functions of the tissues and organs of the body, but which will be of assistance in understanding their abnormal manifestations as they present themselves in hospital and private work. Both in the selection of facts and in the method of presentation the author has been guided by an experience gained during twenty years of active teaching. For those who do not use a special book for laboratory work an appendix has been added of some essential forms of apparatus and the purposes for which they are intended.

From The New York Medical Record:

"The new views of digestion brought to light by Pavlov, Cannon, and others are noted, and new matter on the nervous mechanism of the heart and on vision has been introduced. The work as it is now improved compares most favorably with other physiological text-books, and can be recommended to students as a safe and satisfactory guide."

From The Montreal Medical Journal:

"It is so well balanced and so wisely written throughout, that we can give it our heartiest support and good wishes."

From The London Lancet:

"The facts are clearly stated, the proportionate space given to each section is reasonable, the student is not troubled with a diversity of opinions, whilst a dogmatic style is adopted throughout."

From The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal:

"Professor Brubaker brings to the preparation of this book the experience of twenty years of teaching, and he shows the value of the experience in his emphasis on the essentials of human physiology and in the clearness and directness of his presentation."
